January 2019, Mayflex (https://www.mayflex.com/) the distributor of Converged IP Solutions has recently expanded its internal proactive security sales team by appointing two new regional account managers and a dedicated admin resource to support the new recruits and existing team.

Sharon Powell will be responsible for the Central regions and Janna Butler will look after the South-West area. Both join Mayflex bringing with them a wealth of account management experience gained in their previous roles. Finally Tonika De-Souza will provide an important admin support role, supporting the team on a day to day basis responding to all customer enquiries.

Christianne McMillen, Director of Sales, Security Internal commented, “I am delighted to welcome our three new recruits on board. They have joined the security sales team at a very exciting time. Mayflex continues to see exceptional growth in this area of the business and is highly focused on promoting and selling our security products and services to both new and existing customers.”

Christianne continued, “Working with our comprehensive range of security vendor partners, the individual support services we can provide our installers, our team of accessible, knowledgeable experts, along with free training, access to free meeting and demo facilities, all contribute to making Mayflex the partner of choice when delivering on security projects.”
