The 180-page September 2016 issue of the new-look National Geographic Traveller (UK) has hit the newsstands, and comes with a free copy of the summer edition of National Geographic Traveller - Family.

Our refreshed format gives more space to some of the best travel writing and photography around, while the Smart Traveller and Travel Talk sections have also been refined to give you the latest news, trends and events across the world.

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

Cover Story: This month, we're off to Africa to meet the locals — from a Maasai bead-worker and a Tanzanian savannah guide to a South African shark expert.

Destinations: We head to Brazil's coast to discover vibrant Paraty; venture to the Outer Hebridean island of Lewis & Harris; saddle-up for a Wild West adventure in Cuba; have a long weekend in Spain; and a Caribbean feast on Nevis.

Cities: Our urban highlights include Las Vegas, London, Dubai and Oslo. Our picture story, meanwhile, focuses on the villages of Hong Kong.

Smart Traveller: The latest hotel openings in Amsterdam, Bordeaux's La Cite du Vin, on the trail in Washington DC's Georgetown, a family space adventure and on the coast in South Devon.

Author Series: John Ahern takes his family to Norway's weather-beaten Arctic north.

Travel Talk: Ask the experts includes advice on how to pack a backpack, and tips on photography and travelling safely.

PLUS: Win a seven-night trip for two to Barbados. natgeotraveller.co.uk/competitions
