Every day of Advent a sweet surprise, free of sugar and artificial sweeteners, while saving 1,000 calories.

Cambridge, 1 November 2016. - The photo printing specialist FotoInsight launches a new, larger photo Advent calendar this season, in which, personal moments recorded in photographs replace the calorie bombs behind the traditional 24 doors. With 25 own images, the new photo Advent calendar (<http://fotoinsight.co.uk/photo-calendars/chocolate-advent-calendars.html>) presents a unique alternative to cheap chocolate calendars off supermarket shelves.

An Advent calendar that meets the challenges of our time!

Many Advent calendar enthusiasts wonder how to create a calendar for their loved ones that meets the challenges of our time. Health conscious consumers want to give fewer carbohydrates and less sugar, but more shared time and shared experiences. The zero-carb Advent calendar stocked with own photographs is supporting this trend with the possibility, for example, to reflect the events of the outgoing year with two pictures for each month.

The Managing Director of FotoInsight Klaas Brumann "Our calorie free Advent calendar alternative has a growing fan base. Therefore we have decided to expand our range from the Advent Calendar A4 with the larger format A3. Our customers have taken great pictures and require space for larger prints. the new photo Advent calendar A3 (<http://fotoinsight.ie/calendars/wall-calendars/a3-wall-calendar.html>) is the 'sweetest' pleasure you can give this Advent (<http://better-health-post.blogspot.co.uk/2015/11/health-threat-of-sugar-is-vastly.html>). Compared to a classic 200 g chocolate calendar, the photo calendar reduces the calorie intake in the run-up to Christmas by more than 1,000 kcal. "

Sweetest memories bringing joy this Advent

Creating a photo Advent calendar online

To make a photo Advent calendar, it suffices to upload 25 landscape format pictures through FotoInsight's website. For this type of photographic calendar, smartphone snapshots are often well suited for a surprise memory, concealed by the Advent calendar doors. Images can be put in free order. The photo lab delivers the professionally printed calendar within six working days.
