Chesterbrook, Pa. – November 9, 2020 – Boomi™, a Dell Technologies™ business, and leading provider of cloud-based integration platform as a service (iPaaS), today announced the winners of its annual Partner Summit and Partner Spotlight Awards, which were unveiled during the virtual Boomi Partner Summit. These awards recognize partners who, especially during challenging times, provide outstanding integrated experiences and accelerate outcomes to their customers.

"It's truly an honor to recognize our loyal global partners and the incredible work they are doing on behalf of our mutual customers. Our partner ecosystem helps customers optimize every critical business process to unlock the power of integrated experiences and realize new solutions that address today's ever-changing business needs," said David Tavolaro, Vice President of Global Business Development at Boomi. "Our partners are Boomi's force multiplier. With their help, we are significantly increasing our global footprint and providing innovative customer experiences."

Submissions were evaluated based on the judging criteria, including how partners were able to utilize the breadth of the AtomSphere™ platform to enable Integrated Experiences, creativity and innovation, scope and complexity, and environmental or social impact. Winners were selected by a team of Boomi executives.

Winners were separated into two divisions - Partner Summit Awards and Partner Spotlight Awards. Select winners are publicly announced today.
