Feel and look good this summer with health and well-being tech from Beurer

(<https://www.beurer.com/web/gb/>)

Salon and gym restrictions may have lifted but you might not feel quite ready to take the plunge into busy public places. Not to mention that salon appointments are in demand, so you could find yourself waiting a bit longer to get that treatment you desperately desire. Health and well-being specialist, Beurer, has put together a list of their top tech to help you achieve a summer-ready look yourself or to assist you get summer-body-ready at home.

Find out if it's working with the Beurer BF180 Diagnostic Scale

(<https://www.beurer.com/web/gb/products/wellbeing/weight-and-diagnosis/diagnostic-bathroom-scale/bf-180.php>):

Whether you're working on your annual summer body regime or simply trying to shift the few extra pounds you put on during lockdown, this diagnostic scale lets you know your body, inside out. The Beurer BF180 measures your weight and determines your body fat, water percentage, muscle percentage, bone mass, BMI and BMR calorie display for an overall view of your health. It includes a blue illuminated XL display which is easy to read from standing and can display your weight in kg, lb or st. You can also have 10 user memory spaces.

Better abs than you will achieve at the gym with the Beurer EM22 Muscle Toner

(https://www.beurer.com/web/us/products/active/pain-theraphy_muscel-stimulation/tens-ems/em-22.php):

If you'd rather avoid the gym for a little while, or simply want a more convenient and effective way to tone muscle, then the EM22 muscle toner with 15 levels of intensity is the solution. This hi-tech, electrical muscle stimulation (EMS) device, which can increase the tone and definition of abdominals, legs and arms, actually achieves better results than the gym as it allows access to the additional 70% of muscle fibres that voluntary contraction neglects. As well as sculpting, the EM22 can also be used for muscle rehabilitation to prevent muscular atrophy. So, if you have been pushing yourself hard during lockdown or are partial to running marathons, you can use this highly effective EMS to increase blood flow and to relax your muscles. The electrode pads are made from soft flexible silicone and completely comfortable against the skin.
