06th May 2021: Auteur Limited is delighted to announce the UK & Eire launch of Tru Earth - the category disrupting, zero waste laundry detergent, available at www.trueearth.uk

As the exclusive distributor for Tru Earth in the UK & Eire we are on a mission to eliminate plastic laundry jugs from landfills and oceans, and their eco-strips are the smartest, most eco-friendly way to do your laundry.

Tru Earth is available on a subscription basis from www.trueearth.uk delivered directly through your letterbox in a plastic free zero waste design, at a frequency to suit you, so no more carrying bulky laundry detergent back from the supermarket. Tru Earth subscription service means along with no plastic jug, there is 94% less transportation pollution compared to leading laundry detergent.

Delivered in a zero-waste compostable cardboard sleeve, each ultra-concentrated, hypoallergenic strip completely dissolves with your laundry in both cold and hot water. Weighing just 3 grammes per strip, Tru Earth completely eliminates heavy laundry jugs or plastic boxes and frees up cupboard space.

Clean, green, and simple!

“Our core value at Tru Earth is that consistent small action can lead to big change in the world. When you use Tru Earth Eco-Strips, you will feel confident that you are taking care of your family, and their future on this planet.” Co-Founder Brad Liski
