Holtz Recognized for His Pivotal Role in Driving Sectigo's Growth and Go-To-Market Expansion

ROSELAND, NJ – July 28th, 2021 - Sectigo® (<https://sectigo.com/>), a global provider of digital certificates and automated Certificate Lifecycle Management (CLM) solutions, today announced that its CEO and President Bill Holtz has been named as one of the Top 25 Cybersecurity Executives of 2021 by The Software Report (<https://www.thesoftwarereport.com/>). Holtz joins a notable list of cybersecurity executives known for their deep knowledge and expertise, tenacious management skills and noteworthy professional accomplishments.

"In the rapidly evolving cybersecurity industry, Sectigo is focused on rethinking norms and advancing innovative solutions to secure new, and emerging threats businesses and consumers face in today's digital landscape," said Holtz. "I am humbled and honored to be recognized among my peers with this award as unprecedented challenges continue to emerge within the space."

Under Holtz's leadership since 2017, Sectigo's successes have been numerous as the company continues to fuel its innovation and go-to-market expansion, including:

- Successfully rebranding as Sectigo nearly three years ago and quickly building a leading global brand
- Expanding product and services from TLS/SSL certificates to include industry-leading offerings for automated certificate lifecycle management,
- DevOps, IoT and private PKI, as well as multi-layered web security
- Growing its employee base to more than 425 professionals across the company
- Expanding globally and scaling the business, surpassing 700,000 customers and 1,200 partners
- Continuing its M&A strategy with five acquisitions completed during the past three years, including IconLabs, CodeGuard, SSL247, Xolphin, and SiteLock
