LONDON (31 August 2022) — National Geographic Traveller (UK) has announced the winners of its annual Hotel Awards, celebrating the best new hotels across the world.

From exceptional service to cutting-edge design, the Hotel Awards acknowledge the latest tastemakers, trendsetters and game-changers in the business.

Each of the 14 categories has a winner and two runners-up, meaning a total of 42 hotels received recognition in this year's awards. The full results can be seen in the October 2022 issue of National Geographic Traveller (UK), on newsstands from 1 September.

Pat Riddell, editor of National Geographic Traveller (UK), said: "After a challenging few years, travel is finally finding its feet again — and the world's hotel scene has never looked better. We've searched the globe for the very best new hotel openings, from an ancient fort restored to its former glory to an inner-city retreat glistening with glamour."

The winners are:

Grand Redesigns (best major refurbishment)

The Langham, Boston

City Slicker (best urban hotel)

Gleneagles Townhouse, Edinburgh

Good Egg (most sustainable hotel)

Wilderness Safaris Dumatau, Botswana

Love Shack (most romantic hotel)

The Rooster, Antiparos, Greece

Boutique Break (best boutique hotel)

Aristide Hotel, Syros, Greece

Leave the World Behind (best outdoor escape)

Explora El Chaltén, Argentina

Comeback Kid (best restoration)

Six Senses Fort Barwara, India

On the Money (best-value hotel)

The Goodtime Hotel, Miami

Design Den (best design hotel)
Hoshino Resorts Kai Poroto, Japan

Gourmet Getaway (best gourmet hotel)
Casa Di Langa, Italy

Wellness Wonder (best spa retreat)
Joali Being, Maldives

Lord of the Manor (best country house hotel)
Cashel Palace Hotel, Ireland

Snow Queen (best ski hotel)
