The current political situation and the war in Ukraine threaten Germany with a loss of prosperity. According to the Association of German Chambers of Industry and Commerce, four percent of the gross domestic product is expected to be lost by the end of 2023. To avert this loss of prosperity, companies must drive innovation and productivity to compensate for the competitive disadvantage caused by higher energy prices. The transformation in the areas of ecology, economy and digitalisation must be massively accelerated in order to remain fit for the future.

In this respect, the documentary series "German Thought Leaders" is an excellent opportunity to see how German companies are shaping the future and making the world a better place.
