ServicedStays.com Puts Serviced Apartments onto The Internet Bringing The Comforts of Home and The Services of a Hotel Together Cost-Effectively

ServicedStays.com has been launched today to cater for the increasingly diverse needs of the business and leisure traveller in the UK and from across the world. With over 3000 serviced apartments situated in London and 17 other major UK cities on its database, ServicedStays is the centre for locating unique, versatile accommodation - offering a cost-effective alternative to staying in a hotel. Its wide range of apartments offer all of the creature comforts of home, plus more flexibility and space for living, working and entertaining guests.

"There is an alternative to the hotel, and it's one which brings greater comfort and flexibility with an overall reduced cost," said Michael Parker, CEO of ServicedStays. "With serviced apartments, travellers with particular requirements can cost-effectively stay for longer, find room for large groups, dine and entertain guests, and enjoy unique home comforts and surroundings on their business and leisure trips."

Cardiff-based ServicedStays is pioneering the growth of the serviced apartments industry throughout the UK - an industry that is already well established in the USA and Pacific Rim. The new ServicedStays.com online viewing and booking system is expected to attract considerable interest among all types of business travellers and tourists, bringing the clear benefits of staying in a serviced apartment closer to people through the provision of an accessible, real-time web interface.

"Serviced apartments are particularly ideal for business travellers on long trips, and for holidaying families seeking high-quality yet affordable multiple occupancy." added Parker.

About ServicedStays

ServicedStays has revolutionised the UK serviced apartment marketplace by introducing real-time availability and online booking through the provision of an innovative, technology based solution.

With over 3000 serviced apartments on its database, ServicedStays.com is the premier online source of serviced short-stay accommodation in London and throughout the rest of the UK. ServicedStays provides affordable self-catering apartments in comfortable and relaxed surroundings for anything from one night to six months. They range in size from studios to five bedrooms, each with its own fully-fitted kitchen and all, with the exception of studios, have a lounge and dining area for entertaining guests.

Visitors can log onto <http://www.servicedstays.com> 24 hours a day to search and browse the selection of apartments. Choose the apartment, check availability and book a stay online, or phone 0800 074 1990 to speak to a customer service advisor.
