1 May 2002, London/Kuala Lumpur: Intec Telecom Systems, a global leader in Operations Support Systems (OSS) for fixed, mobile and IP/next-generation networks, today announced the signing of an InterconnectT billing agreement valued at more than one million dollars US with Maxis Communications Bhd, one of Malaysia's leading mobile communications providers.

"Intec continues to make great progress in Asia-Pacific with wins at many leading operators," says Regional Director, John Rocca. "The growth in the number of operators in the region, combined with an ongoing focus on revenue generation, is driving up demand for interconnect solutions. Intec has recently extended its global market share to almost 40%, and with our local development and support capabilities in Malaysia, we expect to see further success in 2002."

Maxis Communications Bhd was established in 1993 in Malaysia. The company supports the largest number of GSM subscribers in the country and has alliances with network operators in over 118 destinations and 165 network operators. Maxis was the first company in the country to roll-out comprehensive WAP services, activate a General Packet Radio Service (GPRS) live call and to make a third generation (3G) live call at the 4th MSC - IAP (Multimedia Super Corridor - International Advisory Panel) exposition. Maxis also supports Mobile Internet and broadband access technologies, using extensive fibre-optic cabling to deliver services from voice, data and Internet to video at high speeds.
