Two further appointments have been made by Senior Hargreaves to strengthen their national ductshop sales team. John Pollard, who has been the internal sales manager at the Leeds ductshop for the last seven years, has become the new area sales manager for Yorkshire and the North East. Andrew Baird becomes area sales manager for Scotland, working from the East Kilbride ductshop.

"With four ASM's in post, and others pending, we are building a strong team to support our plans for growth. We will have some exciting new products to announce soon, together with a commercial package that will appeal to regional HVAC contractors," explained ductshop general manager Ian Frost.
