

Prestigious Accountancy Age Award Shortlist for Version One

Submitted by: V1 Ltd

Thursday, 2 October 2003

Document Management and Imaging company, Version One, is delighted to be a Finalist in the 2003 Accountancy Age Awards for the Enterprise Systems Software Package of the Year, with its DbArchive system. This enterprise-wide Document Management solution seamlessly integrates into an organisation's existing accounting system, providing a powerful electronic archive from which documents can be instantly and easily accessed. By eliminating the printing and filing of outgoing and incoming documents, productivity is boosted and corporate costs are significantly reduced.

Tony Bray, Director of Version One, said, "We are absolutely thrilled to be shortlisted for this prestigious Award. This is testimony to the continuing success of DbArchive and highlights the business benefits which our clients worldwide enjoy as a result of implementing our document management and imaging solutions."

Accountancy Age is recognised as the voice of the industry and the Awards remain the only ones to reward excellence across the entire accountancy business, attracting the best of the UK's Accountancy software packages and the cream of the Accountancy profession.
