Birmingham, UK – 17 May 04 - Sendo, Britain's only mobile phone manufacturer, today provided its top five tips for text flirting to Londoners who are tired of their winter woollies and are looking for a spring fling. Whether it's the girl next door or the bloke behind the bar, text flirting is an easy way to make dating more fun.

Sendo's Top Five Tips For Text Flirting:

1. Play hard to get – As text is almost instantaneous, wait before responding. You can chalk it up to being in the tub, at the gym or cooking dinner.
2. Learn the lingo – Get smart, learn the shortcuts for longer terms and it will undoubtedly impress!
3. Gain brownie points – Use text to send quick compliments, love notes or just to let them know you care.
4. Don't forget face time – Whilst texting is an easy way to cut through awkward moments, nothing is a replacement for face time – or just send a photo!
5. Mind your Ps and Qs – Remember others can access your text messages.
