Once upon a time...

...another time...far far away in a distant land of tyrants, monsters and heroes, lived Princess Fiona and her Prince Charming, a big, green, ugly ogre named Shrek. Oh...and their incredibly funny sidekick, Donkey!

In their latest adventures in Shrek2, set to wow cinema audiences on its July release, Shrek faces his greatest challenge yet...meeting the in-laws!

But fans of this oversized ogre don't have to wait until this latest sidesplitting instalment of Shreks journey is released on the big screen. Rubie's Masquerade, the world's largest manufacturer and supplier of fancy dress costumes, give you the chance to join him on his travels by dressing up as the loveable green monster!

Transform yourself into this hilarious character from Far Far Away land with this highly detailed two-piece costume, complete with vinyl mask.

If you want to join Shrek on another whirlwind adventure contact Jokers Masquerade on: 0871 871 9990 or visit their website at www.joke.co.uk or Mail Order Express on: 08700 129090 or visit their website at www.mailorderexpress.com. Alternatively, ride Donkey down to your local party or fancy dress store where you'll find Shrek waiting for around £20.00.

But if you're looking for the position of annoying talking animal...it's already been taken!
