If you require food gifts all wrapped up this Christmas then visit The Gift Gourmet website at www.thegiftgourmet.co.uk. (To view sample site prior to this going live in September please visit <http://tggc.redtechnology.com>) Simply choose one of the many speciality food gifts on offer and The Gift Gourmet Company will do the rest, including free gift packaging, a personalised message and delivery to the recipients address. With a vast range of speciality foods, many of which come with complementary serving accessories, the site offers a gift for everyone, especially the 'foodies' in your life.

All of the gifts are groupings of the highest quality speciality foods, carefully complemented with chic serving condiments and accessories. For example, why not allow your friends to dream of the Mediterranean this Christmas with an authentic Tuscan 'Anti Pasti Set'. This gift includes the finest mixed olives, sun dried tomatoes and stuffed mushrooms direct from Italy, and comes complete with three ceramic serving dishes and a stylish dark wood base. (£22.99)

For the ultimate coffee experience, the 'Espresso Set' is a must. Containing four espresso cups and saucers, a pack of 1919 Britot espresso coffee, a traditional stove top espresso pot and a box of Cantuccini biscuits, perfect for dunking in your espresso, there really is no other way to replicate an Italian 'Café' experience. (£19.99)

For those with chocoholic friends (and who hasn't!) there are a number of options including the 'Chocoholic Set'. This gift will give the most ardent chocoholic everything they need to indulge in a chocolate feast. Including Belgian chocolates, chocolate biscuits, choc chip cookies and two designer 'chocolat' mugs along with matching 'chocolat' plates, the chocolate lover will have something to eat, along with something to treasure. (£16.99)

Or, how about the 'Chocolate Fondue Set'. A versatile set that can be used for entertaining, the gift contains a ceramic Fondue with detachable serving pot, a candle, a bag of the finest Swiss fondue chocolate and 4 forks for dipping in to the chocolate. All you need to add are the fresh strawberries! (£12.99)

If it is a member of the opposite sex that you are buying for then the 'For Him' luxury grooming set and the 'For Her' pampering Gift Set are the ideal present. Within the 'For Him' set you will find a bottle of Prosecco sparkling dry white wine gift wrapped with a blue and silver organza presentation bottle bag, an Arran 'man on the move' toiletries set containing shower gel, facial scrub, post shave cream, cologne, shaving foam and face cloth. To complete the gift for todays modern man you will find a Ziggy Zen 'Idiot Proof cook book for men', to help even the most culinary challenged males! (£29.99)

And, 'For Her', a truly pampering collection of Belgian Chocolates, an Arran 'After the Rain' toiletries set, containing moisturising bath essence, a votive candle, body gel with glitter, hand soother and soap awaits. To be enjoyed wherever the lady likes is also a bottle of Italian Prosecco sparkling dry white wine wrapped within a blue and silver organza presentation bottle bag. (£29.99)
