Call Centre Expo at the end of September will herald the launch of Retell's new corporate identity along with a range of products designed to make call recording and management affordable for even the smallest business.

Marketing Manager, Jo-Anne Howard says " We have provided call recording solutions to thousands of businesses for almost two decades and are just rounding off our most successful year ever. We have listened to our customers over the years and developed a range of cost effective solutions backed by first class customer service and support. As the company grows so to does our determination to improve products and service support even further with the introduction of our remote demonstration and diagnostic facility, web cam support and our new installation and maintenance service."

With Retell you are in good company.
