London – January 04, 2004 – Prowse & Hargood Shirtmakers, a leading maker of quality shirts and accessories today announced the launch of its range of pure cotton Women's formal dress shirts.

Prowse & Hargood is a leading maker of formal shirts for Men and Women. The company has a reputation for delivering quality products from formal wear to office wear and also tailored shirts of all types.

Its range of Women's shirts have been created using the freshest, most vibrant colours and very luxurious materials all combined with subtle, elegant professional tailoring. This new range of Women's shirts have taken the best elements of men's tailoring and give it a wonderful feminine twist.

“Our range of Women's shirts have a unique and distinct design which separates them from all other designs available today” said Simon Brown, promotions manager of Prowse & Hargood. Our designers have used years of combined experience in delivering this exceptional cut. We are thrilled about this product.

Along with its range of shirts for Men and Women, Prowse & Hargood also have a collection of handmade silk ties, quality cufflinks and cotton socks all available to purchase from its online store.
