For Valentine's Day this year, why not experience "La Vie en Rose" with the most romantic Champagne gift from Nicolas Feuillatte - a new quarter bottle of Champagne Rosé decorated with delicate pink hearts. It will be perfect to give to your Valentine as a present or to share at dinner. The mini-bottles of Nicolas Feuillatte Rosé are also great as a special treat for a girls' night in.

The Nicolas Feuillatte Brut Rosé is a perfect example of a fresh and fruity Champagne packed with youthful flavours. Its pink coppery tones and fine bubbles look stylish in elegant Champagne flutes while its wonderful nose of wild strawberries, bilberries and red currants make it an ideal partner for red fruit desserts. Alternatively, you could also serve it as an aperitif to get the party started.

The quarter bottle of Nicolas Feuillatte "La Vie en Rose" is available from Waitrose and John Lewis Departement Stores. Price:£7 per quarter bottle. Happy Valentine's Day!
