PRESS RELEASE

In need of ideas to rekindle the romance and passion in your life?

Don't turn a blind eye to the Spoylt silk robe...

Who said sexy undergarments have to stop at frilly bras and negligees? If you are running short of ideas – and imagination – to get your partner's attention, fear not. You will look gorgeous in the Spoylt silk robe and if he was expecting a quiet night in front of the telly, he couldn't have been more wrong: the robe's belt is a sexy blindfold which will make him want to take part in kinky games – and it won't be football!

The gown and its matching diamante blindfold belt will make you become the object of his affection when you get up in the morning and get undressed after a hard day at work. The only thing he will be able to think of is whether you will be using the belt around your waist or your eyes! Either way, you will have him wrapped around your little finger.

And if you would rather be selfish and keep it for pampering sessions or simply stay in on your own, don't think twice. The full length silk robe, slit on both sides to the thigh, with lightly flared sleeves and delicate neckline is perfect for 'me' times.

The Spoylt robe is available in lipstick pink and pistachio green to complement the colours of the Spring Summer collection now available from the Figleaves and Spoylt websites. You have no excuse not to wrap yourself in the most luxurious French silk in the world.
