Perfectly Provençal

If you dream of snowboarding in the morning, lazing by your own pool in the afternoon and watching the fireworks at the Cannes Film Festival from your terrace in the evening, Villa Hermione, perched high in the Provençal hills, could fit the bill perfectly.

Villa Hermione sits tucked away on a private domaine within twenty minutes' drive of Cannes and the beaches of the Cote d'Azur. Nice airport is just half an hour away, and you can reach the ski resort of Isola 2000 in a couple of hours.

The accommodation in this attractive Provençal villa is spread over several levels, in a hillside setting with unobstructed views over the Bay of Cannes, The Lerins Islands, Cap d'Antibes and the Esterel Mountains.

On the upper ground floor, the front door opens to a lobby and cloakroom, dining area, split level sitting area, lounge, study area, conservatory, kitchen and part-covered terrace.

On the second floor there is a master suite with walk-in closet. On the garden level is an inner hallway leading to three more bedrooms (one with en-suite bathroom), a family bathroom and separate wc. There is also a utility room, double storeroom, wine cellar and double garage.

Outside there are gorgeous views from the terraces and swimming pool, and the landscaped gardens are redolent with the scent of Mimosa, Pine, Cyprus and Rosemary.
