Hi there. It's competition time for Kumala wine and we have a great summer time treat in store for your readers / listeners.

We have Kumala summer kits up for grabs that, amongst other things include lots of delicious Kumala wine, a backpack hamper and director's chair and perhaps best of all, tickets to the Summer Swing festival at Kew this July - it's a great prize and something different for your audience.

We are looking for national Lifestyle, Music and Culture magazines along with any quality media whose publications or shows cover in and around the M25 area.

If you have a competition or promotion slot and would like to include these fantastic prizes please email me details of your magazine or radio show along with any other relevant details to claire@spiritsolutions.co.uk

Obviously demand for Kumala competitions is always high so please mark emails as urgent if deadlines are imminent.

Many thanks

Claire
