ZONE LABS WINS BEST SMALL/HOME OFFICE SECURITY SOLUTION CATEGORY IN 2005 SC MAGAZINE EUROPEAN AWARDS

LONDON, UK – 28th April 2005 — Zone Labs®, a Check Point® company (NASDAQ: CHKP), today announced that the ZoneAlarm® Security Suite 5.5 has won the Best Small Office/Home Office Security Solution category in the 2005 SC Magazine European Excellence Awards.

"We are delighted that ZoneAlarm Security Suite 5.5 has won such a prestigious award," said Gregor Freund, CTO of Check Point Software Technologies and founder of Zone Labs. "To be recognised in this way by the most respected information technology professionals in Europe is a great honour. It is a superb validation of our technology and the peace of mind we are delivering to our users throughout Europe and the world."

ZoneAlarm® Security Suite 5.5 protects consumers and small business users from a wide range of Internet-borne threats posed by hackers, viruses online fraud and spam. The Suite provides all-in-one PC protection, integrating the Zone Labs award-winning firewall with antivirus, Web site filtering, privacy protection, instant messaging security and now, phishing and spam filtering.

Check Point, Zone Labs' parent company, was awarded Best Enterprise Security Solution for its end-point security product, Integrity.

The award was presented yesterday evening at the SC Magazine European Excellence Awards Ceremony and gala dinner held at the Riverbank Plaza Hotel, in London.

About the SC Magazine European Excellence Awards 2005

New for 2005, the Excellence Awards are the latest innovation in the SC Awards program. They bring security users and developers together by focussing on technical excellence in key business sectors and professional achievement in large corporate organisations and SMEs. The Excellence Awards comprise two categories - the Corporate Awards voted on by the judges of the SC Awards and the SC Awards Council and the Professional Awards - voted on by the judges of the SC Awards.
