Play renowned games of skill for real money for the first time ever with MoneyGaming!

Pack the kids off early to school, kick the hubbie out, and let MoneyGaming introduce you to a world where you can play all of your favourite games, online and for money! You will experience hours of fun playing everything from word games, jigsaw puzzles to various classic board games, including Othello and Connect 4. Say 'NO!' to boring online gambling sites where the odds are always against you on the same old games of chance. MoneyGaming means the better you play, the more you win.

Play against people all around the world, and you will soon wonder why you even need that bloke in your life! You even have the option of private games rooms, where you decide who you play against! Bored of Crosswords in your daily newspaper or weekly magazine, why not log-on and pitch your lexicology skills against others and win cash. With online gambling, the house always wins – MoneyGaming has no house, so the better you are the more you can win.

What's more, and in contrast to online gambling sites, MoneyGaming is not considered to be gambling according to UK and US law, thus allowing the company to be based in the UK! This uniquely allows MoneyGaming to provide a completely secure environment for gamers to play.

From one on one games to international competitions, MoneyGaming has a challenge to fulfil every gamers needs. With the added bonus of big money jackpots and free entry tournaments with guaranteed prizes, MoneyGaming provides a unique proposition to entice anyone after a real challenge.

The internet Gaming market is experiencing rapid growth, and is currently the premier activity online in regards to session time. With 6 out of 10 adults in the UK already spending a minimum of £50/month on online gambling¹, Money Games aims take a share of this market with a much more fun and secure offering. Research² shows that whilst hardcore online gaming remains predominantly a male activity, growth within the casual gaming market is being driven by women. Additionally the two biggest potential growth markets are the middle classes and women.

There are already over 4million internet searches/month relating the MoneyGaming's exact offering – ranging from like 'play backgammon online', to 'play chess for money'. Indeed, Microsoft's games zone (MSN Zone) boasts at least 200,000 players online at all times!

MoneyGaming essentially integrates all of the risk and adrenalin of online gaming, but using the challenge of everyday games that are genuinely enjoyable to play. For bored housewives all over the country watching daytime television or squandering money on bingo and online shopping, MoneyGaming will make stimulating games accessible all of the time and provide a quality moment of escapism in their day!
