

EnGrande offers online budget Istanbul accommodation from 30 euros per person per night.

Submitted by: EnGrande SL

Monday, 3 December 2007

EnGrande, Barcelona-based Internet reservations service and online intermediary for over 1,500 budget hotels, hostels, apartments and bed & breakfasts throughout Europe is pleased to announce the launch of Istanbul as the latest city in its portfolio of exciting destinations, with accommodation on offer on <http://www.istanbul30.com> at a target price of just 30 euros per person per night!

Travellers can experience this mesmerising metropolis spanning two continents at more than accessible rates and choose from reliable, affordable accommodation in key central locations such as the bohemian Taksim, with easy access to the emblematic Taksim Square, or the bustling Istiklal street and Galata Tower. EnGrande's collaborating establishments in the "City on Seven Hills" offer an affordable, convenient base in the Turkish capital for the cost-conscious, independent traveller, and are within easy reach of such essential Istanbul experiences as the Golden Horn, Sulthanahmat, the Hagia Sophia church, a place of worship for both Christians and Muslims throughout the ages, plus the UNESCO world heritage sites of Fener and Balat, and of course the ferry across the Bosphorus to Asian Istanbul.

Istanbul, a unique destination, now accessible as never before to the independent traveller. For more details of exciting online accommodation deals in other EnGrande cities including Barcelona, Paris, Prague, London and Rome, check out <http://www.engrande.com>