Tiger Promotions, the organisers of Dance Island 2008, has just revealed the full line-up for this summer's newest dance festival.

The event, which will take place on private land in Ely, Cambridgeshire over the weekend of 5-6 July, is set to include over 60 performers from the global dance scene.

British dance superstars, Audio Bullys have been confirmed as the festival's headline performers, with the Freemasons and Stanton Warriors joining them on the outdoor stage.

Previously announced Mauro Picotto, Radio 1's Dave Pearce and trance sensation, Agnelli & Nelson will be accompanied by Public Domain's Mark Sherry and John O'Callaghan to head up the Trance Arena hosted by BIG.

The Tidy Boys headline Slinky's Hard Dance Arena, which will see the Organ Donors Vs Vinylgroover performing their live 'Audio Surgery' and will be joined by Radio 1's Kutski and dance legends BK and Andy Farley.

Old Skool legends The Ratpack will be joined by a live PA from Baby D as they headline the Raindance Hardcore Arena with Slipmatt, Ellis Dee, Kenny Ken and Nicky Blackmarket supporting a massive line up.

Much loved house music brand, Koolwaters, has been brought in to host the festivals Dance Arena. Stonebridge, Marc Vedo and Kate Lawler have been confirmed with the arena's headline act to be announced shortly.

Alastair Morbey from event organisers, Tiger Promotions, comments, "We're absolutely thrilled with the acts that are performing at Dance Island 2008. We've managed to get some of the biggest names in the industry covering all genres of dance music, so everyone's tastes should be catered for."

"It's only the first year for Dance Island yet the buzz that it's generated is fantastic. With the headline performers on the outdoor stage, the huge line-up of DJ's in the five arenas, the site's capacity, facilities and attractions, the event has all of the makings of a great festival."

Tickets are now on sale and are available through the Dance Island website – www.dance-island.com, as well as other online ticket outlets and will be available from HMV Stores throughout East Anglia from 9th May.

Over 10,000 people are expected to attend the festival, which, in addition to the outdoor stage and five arenas, features a VIP area with exclusive entertainment hosted by the amazing Fierce Angles team as well as a fun-fair, a food village, a chill-out area and trade stalls.

The complete line-up, as well as other announcements, can also be found on www.dance-island.com
