If you are holidaying 'en famille' this summer, whether it is in a luxury villa on the French Riviera, venturing your tribe on a deluxe South African safari, or being waited on hand and foot by your family's very own butler at the exclusive Ritz-Carlton Villas and Spas in Bahrain, where 'Britain's Got Talent' judge Piers Morgan recently took his sons - then you need luxury travel (<http://www.preferential.co.uk/>) insurance to match!

A summer family holiday (<http://www.preferential.co.uk/>) is likely to be one of the most expensive holidays you will purchase, so it really is important to make sure you have adequate travel insurance, especially for the all important cancellation & curtailment cover. And if you are looking for the highest overall levels of cover in the market, then look no further than "Premier" travel insurance (<http://www.preferential.co.uk/>), from Preferential.

Premier's high levels of cover include medical cover up to £15 million per person and cancellation and curtailment cover is up to £15,000 per person, - the highest level of cancellation cover in the market today. Preferential's Premier also offers personal accident cover of up to £100,000 per person, which again, is one of the highest on the market.

And with a one-off payment for an Annual Multi-Trip policy covering the whole family, you can take your brood away throughout the year for as many times as you like, with a maximum trip duration of 31 days

A 'Premier' Worldwide Annual Multi-Trip policy for a family of two adults and two children is priced from £281.53
