About Karen Millen

Karen Millen was founded in 1981 by Kevin Stanford and Karen Millen. Starting with just £100 they bought 100 metres of cotton and began making and selling white t-shirts to their friends. The first store opened in 1983 and from these modest beginnings Karen Millen has become one of the UK's favourite fashion brands. Designing all of their clothes, shoes, handbags, accessories and watches in-house, means that buying Karen Millen guarantees buying something fashionable, cutting edge and unique.

Karen Millen is now an international brand, with stores not only in the UK and Ireland, but also internationally with a brand new store having opened in New York in March 2008.
