The award winning cone-shaped vibrator (<http://www.onjoy.com/Fun-Vibrators/The-Cone-Black.asp>) wants to welcome you to the dark side with its super stylish new colour, black.

For those of you that loved the idea of this truly innovative vibrator but pink (<http://www.onjoy.com/Clit-Teasers/The-Cone.asp>) was just not your colour, you can now get your hands on the ever classic black (<http://www.onjoy.com/Fun-Vibrators/The-Cone-Black.asp>) version because black is back!

The Cone (<http://www.onjoy.com/Fun-Vibrators/The-Cone-Black.asp>) doesn't follow the norm when it comes to shape, but don't be fooled, the hands-free design will leave you more than satisfied and the funky, contemporary style means it doesn't need to be hidden away in the bedroom drawer.

The innovative shape hits all the spots and is guaranteed to please! Enjoy waves of pleasure with 16 automated programmes of pulsation and escalation, and an orgasm button for the less patient.

The Cone (<http://www.onjoy.com/Fun-Vibrators/The-Cone-Black.asp>) is great fun to use on your own or even more fun for two and whether you're a saint (<http://www.onjoy.com/Clit-Teasers/The-Cone.asp>) or sinner (<http://www.onjoy.com/Fun-Vibrators/The-Cone-Black.asp>) we have a colour for you!

Jonathan Ross: "If that doesn't get you ladies you've been dead for seven years"

The Cone (<http://www.onjoy.com/Fun-Vibrators/The-Cone-Black.asp>) is available from www.onjoy.com (<http://www.onjoy.com/>) RRP £49.95.
