Women's contraception is a hot topic. The recent government targets surrounding women's contraception proves it's a high priority on their agenda and importantly, highlights their commitment to increase contraceptive choice and decrease teenage pregnancies by 2010.

In support of these targets, leading contraception manufacturer Bayer Schering Pharma invites you to their Contraception Clinics, to meet some of the UK's leading contraception experts including:

- Joe Brice, Bayer Schering Healthcare: Government Aims for Women's Health
- Dr Anne Szarewski, Associate Specialist, Margaret Pyke Centre: Contraception Choices
- Dr Catherine Hood, Sexual Health Expert: Contraception Conversations

To reserve a place at the Contraception Clinics and / or book a time slot for a one-to-one with any of the experts, or for more information, please contact: jenna.gifford@redconsultancy.com
