Renowned as the global expert on long hair dressing, Patrick Cameron has launched a range of beautiful hair accessories, which are perfect for adding the finishing touches to party, bridal or any special occasion hair.

The simple to use hair accessories have been designed by Patrick to provide a little extra sparkle and add a touch of elegance to dressed hair. Within the range there are nine different styles ranging from Rhinestone Cluster Pins to Pearl and Rhinestone Spirals. Each set of accessories is available in either a gold or silver finish and are packaged in a set of five, gift wrapped in a cream organza bag. The hair accessories cost from £10.00- 15.00 plus P&P and are available from www.patrick-cameron.com.

"I've wanted to produce a range of hair accessories for quite some time now," explains Patrick. "I could never find an assortment that I felt was easy to use and was elegant and classic. I was often asked by hairdressers what I would recommend, and when I couldn't find what I was looking for I decided to design my own range. My Rhinestone Spirals are finer and lighter in weight, ensuring they lie flat to the hair, giving a very elegant finish. This collection adds the perfect finishing touch for any party or bridal hair, and with clients looking for something different for proms, balls and special occasions, my hair accessories are the perfect way to add a little sparkle."
