Website offers free running and parkour shoes

Fitness Footwear the number one online sports and activity shoe retailer has partnered with Inov8 (<http://www.fitnessfootwear.com/c-116-inov-8.aspx>) to offer shoes to the Parkour community.

Fitness Footwear currently supplies footwear for a variety of different activities including climbing, badminton (<http://www.fitnessfootwear.com/s-219-badminton-shoes.aspx>), golf and squash and is now catering for free runners and parkour enthusiasts across the UK and Europe.

Luke Barlow, Founder of Fitness Footwear said: "Since partnering with Inov8 we have already received hundreds of enquiries about their range. Parkour shoes (<http://www.fitnessfootwear.com/s-216-parkour-free-running-shoes.aspx>) are fantastic both for free running and as general all-purpose footwear as they are incredibly light and comfortable."

Fitness Footwear offers a range of sport and leisure shoes to cater for every interest. From running to climbing, from parkour to fashion, Fitness Footwear has something for everyone, stocking top quality brands such as Caterpillar (<http://www.fitnessfootwear.com/c-82-caterpillar.aspx>) and DC Shoes (<http://www.fitnessfootwear.com/c-163-dc-shoes.aspx>).

The secure site enables you to browse by activity or brand and all orders despatched within the UK come with free delivery as standard.
