Bulk Supplements Direct are an innovative new company specialising in performance nutrition and nutritional supplements. However, they do this with a twist!

Rather than operate via the reseller channel Bulk Supplements Direct offer the highest quality supplements direct to the public. So whether you are looking for whey proteins, carbohydrates or amino acids - Bulk Supplements Direct can provide you with a solution.

With over a collective 50+ years of experience, those involved with the company are able to provide blends and solutions to help trainees to get the most out of their training. So if you are looking to gain weight, lose weight, add muscle, obtain definition - than Bulk Supplements Direct can help.

If you have been duped into the "gain 50lb of muscle in 5 minutes" than we feel the pain and can relate to you! This is why Bulk Supplements Direct is here! To deliver value, quality and results - the effort in the gym can only be seen with concise nutrition and the correct supplementation.

Bulk Supplements Direct promises the following

- * Where possible, we test all the supplements (and provide the certificate of analysis for download) we sell to ensure that our products are the highest quality available
- * We only sell supplements and blends that work; we do not sell gimmicks or false promises
- * We provide a first rate service and are always on hand to answer any questions you may have
- * We value our customers as you are the lifeblood of our business and we will never forget that
- * We will deliver a first rate customer service.

So what do we offer?

Bulk Whey Proteins : Supplying the highest quality proteins in the industry direct to you, the consumer

However, it does not just stop there! Bulk Supplements Direct offer an outstanding customer referral system! On account registration each user is given a dedicated promotional code which they can pass on to their friends and colleagues. This entitles them to 5% off and the original user earns points at a rate of 1point per pound spent! So before you know it - all your own supplements can be free!

Our ethos is clear; to deliver an outstanding product selection that delivers value and performance and results

Value - provide a true alternative to the consumer on cutting edge supplements

Quality - provide an outstanding level of products and service

Innovation - bring to market a range of products/ingredients that deliver what they claim to do
