

Post Market – Head to Chez Jules

Submitted by: Punch Communications

Monday, 24 November 2008

Birmingham restaurant (<http://www.chezjules.co.uk>) Chez Jules has become the eatery of choice for diners looking for a quality meal after perusing the famous Frankfurt Christmas market.

For the past eight years, Birmingham's Victoria Street has been transformed into a Festive German grotto complete with numerous stalls offering genuine stollen cake, German Bratwurst, Wheat Beer, steaming mugs of Glutwein along with curious and exciting gifts of all kinds – each guaranteed to fill you with festive cheer.

The Frankfurt market runs until 9.00pm each night until December the 23rd and so post market, the people of Birmingham flock to Chez Jules for an atmosphere and dining experience perfectly suited to casual drinks, an intimate dinner or even a few Birmingham Christmas parties (http://www.chezjules.co.uk/birmingham_christmas_parties.htm).

Chez Jules is the ultimate location for diners wishing to sample quality French food at pocket friendly prices. The chefs at Chez Jules never compromise quality, selecting only the best ingredients in order to ensure that customers dine happy and dine again – a tried and tested formula.

Birmingham parties (<http://www.chezjules.co.uk/events.htm>) are well and truly on the cards at this time of year and Chez Jules is the ideal place to guarantee a great time. Located in the buzzing city centre just off New Street, it is the perfect restaurant to enjoy a delicious meal before heading out to experience all that Birmingham has to offer.

Close to transport, bars and night clubs – Chez Jules is the ideal place for a great meal and a great evening – guaranteed.

To make a booking, or for more information - visit www.chezjules.co.uk (<http://www.chezjules.co.uk>) or call 0121 6334664.

For more information, contact Chez Jules' PR Agency (<http://www.punchcomms.com>) Punch Communications on 01858 411 600.