SHINE THROUGH THE PARTY SEASON - EVEN IN A CREDIT CRUNCH

The credit crunch may be all around but there is a great new way you can still manage to shine during the festive season with some head turning pieces of fine jewellery and keep within your budget.

RentYourRocks.com (<http://www.rentyourrocks.com>) is a brand new website that has been launched allowing you to hire fine jewellery for that special occasion for a week or longer if you prefer.

RentYourRocks.com (<http://www.rentyourrocks.com>) is a whole new concept for the jewellery market and it gives people the flexibility to select a piece to match an outfit whether it is an elegant pearl necklace or something more flamboyant for really creating a stir and turning heads.

Rental prices start from just £50, and pieces which would usually retail from £350 to £18,000 would be available to hire from £50 to £750 a week respectively.

The collection on the website has been carefully selected so there are classically beautiful pieces and eye-catching items for that grander occasion.

You can even have advice from a highly experienced team of gemmologists at RentYourRocks.com (<http://www.rentyourrocks.com>) if you are not sure which necklace, bracelet or earrings would be the best for you and your outfit.

Sophie Croydon, founder of RentYourRocks.com (<http://www.rentyourrocks.com>), who has developed the new website alongside her role in an established family jewellery business said: "We know that many people want to create a really special look for a big party, their wedding day or a special occasion in their life but might not want nor have the budget to commit to a piece of jewellery for life. Our new website will allow you to commit for just one week but still look as if you are wearing the family jewels to complete that special look."

The RentYourRocks.com (<http://www.rentyourrocks.com>) service has been designed to be easy to use and customers just have to register on the site and then select a piece from the website. This payment process involves a booking deposit which is reserved from the customer's card and it is removed as soon as the item is returned after the hire period.

A full selection and further details of the exquisite jewellery for hire can be found on the website at www.rentyourrocks.com
