is available from the Carphone Warehouse this festive season too, allowing users to do almost anything online such as viewing YouTube videos, search on Google, shop online or check e-mail. This handset comes pre-loaded with Google Maps, Google Mail, Google Talk and GPS and is updated automatically via the always-on internet connection.

Smartphones such as the Blackberry Bold and the Samsung Omnia are also available, offering users the chance to download videos and music, take high quality pictures and use applications to meet both business and leisure needs.

As well as the variety of handsets on offer from the Carphone Warehouse this Christmas, the mobile phone retailer also has a range of laptops and accessories available including the Webbook, a lightweight and portable laptop with a 10.2 inch screen that runs on either Linux or Windows XP and offering integrated Wi-Fi, web browser, 3 USB ports and 80GB of hard disk space. Bluetooth headsets utilising the latest technology and the brand new Flip video camcorders, which allow video footage to be uploaded almost instantly to the web, will also be on sale this Christmas.

A wide range of gift ideas for technology aficionados is available at the Carphone Warehouse this Christmas with laptops, handsets, accessories and gadgets available to suit any needs.
