Midland's PR Agency (<http://www.punchcomms.com/midlands-pr-agency>) Punch Communications is based in the rural and calming Northampton countryside – certainly a juxtaposition in terms of the levels of activity around the office compared with inside!

The Public relations agency (<http://www.punchcomms.com/public-relations-agency>) has grown considerably since its conception almost six years ago and now has an extensive background in handling campaigns across all sectors, including digital, consumer, automotive and B2B. The client base is extremely varied and so consequently, the team of public relations consultants (<http://www.punchcomms.com/public-relations-consultants>) dealing with the accounts are all extremely knowledgeable across each of the client sectors on the Punch books.

Punch Communications is a PR company (<http://www.punchcomms.com/pr-company.html>) with a strong belief in the need to tailor a PR campaign in order to best suit the specific aims and requirements of its clients.

Managing Director of Punch Communications, Pete Goold commented: - "It is extremely important to ensure that when dealing with clients across such varied sectors, that each member of the team undertakes specific research and training in order to best equip them with the knowledge they need to carry out a successful public relations (<http://www.punchcomms.com>) campaign. At Punch Communications this is made a priority."
