On Tuesday 20th January, Quintessentially and The Chicago Rib Shack (<http://www.chicagoribshack.co.uk>) will be hosting London's hottest party for the inauguration of Barack Obama's as President of the United States.

Quintessentially are thrilled to partner with the Chicago Rib Shack for what promises to be the most anticipated event of the New Year. With over four million people descending on Washington and with people across the globe witnessing the arrival of the first African American president the inauguration is set to be a landmark world historic event.

With Obama's connection with Chicago, the London's Chicago Rib Shack (<http://www.chicagoribshack.co.uk>) in Knightsbridge is the perfect location for this exclusive event. Set to be as genuine as possible the party will kick off at 4pm with LIVE footage of the inauguration from Washington DC accompanied by highlights from Obama's campaign trail. DJ Philly (Ministry of Sound, Chinawhite) will be spinning the decks and live music comes courtesy of singer Patrick Alan and his band who have previously performed with Will Smith, Wyclef, Justin Timberlake, Estelle and Christina Aguilera. Delicious Chicago ribs, smoked in apple-wood burners and cooked in authentic ovens will be served with American beers, as well as an array of classic burgers and the delicious onion loaf.

Micha Wyatt from Quintessentially Events, the production team behind the evening, says: - "As an American in London, it came to my attention that during the American elections there was nowhere to go and see the results and I feared the same for the inauguration. As well as thousands of expats based here, there has been huge interest from Quintessentially members so we decided to host a truly authentic event to celebrate and commemorate this momentous occasion."

Christian Arden, from Chicago Rib Shack says: - "This is set to be a fantastic night and we are thrilled to be hosting it. It is a great way to celebrate this moment in history and we are delighted to be partnering with Quintessentially for it"

Tickets are priced at GBP 60 (+VAT) per person and include reserved seating (subject to availability), free beer and party food from 4pm until 10pm, but the celebrations will continue until late. To book, please email events@quintessentially.com or www.chicagoribshack.co.uk
