Gran Canaria's renowned Gay Resort – Beach Boys (<http://www.mantrav.co.uk>) is back under new ownership

After almost a year closed the internationally acclaimed Beach Boys (<http://www.mantrav.co.uk>) resort in Gran Canaria has re-opened under new ownership and boasting an amazing refurbishment.

Formerly managed by Sensations/ManAround up until January 2008 when the resort was closed – an early sign that it's operators were undergoing hardships.

Bringing a wealth of experience heading the new team here at Beach Boys is Manel Dominguez. He's working closely with the owners to bring Beach Boys into the 21st Century. This is noticed with the bright and bold colour schemes as opposed to the typical pastels you will find at many other resorts.

Beach Boys Resort is located in Maspalomas and offers an exclusively gay environment that's close to the beach but still only 15 minutes' walk from the Yumbo Centre and today is a very sociable complex, perfect for those of you who don't necessarily want to be right on top of the action but don't want to miss out on a minute's fun in the sun.

Beach Boys has a total of 21 bungalows, set in private grounds, which have been sympathetically planted with local flowers, shrubs and trees. Entrance to the complex is through secure gates, ensuring privacy & safety at all times and maintaining the calm and peaceful atmosphere that this resort is renowned for. Once inside the complex, you can't fail to miss the pool. Kidney-shaped and recently re-tiled, the pool is large enough for a refreshing swim and is surrounded by a good supply of sun-loungers - ideal for working on that all-over tan. And next to the pool is the large, outdoor hot tub.

You can book Beach Boys exclusively in the UK through Mantrav International – the leading Gay Travel/Beach Boys (<http://www.mantrav.co.uk>) Specialist, but visiting www.mantrav.co.uk, calling 01342 319 151 or emailing bookings@mantrav.co.uk.

This is a great return for Gran Canaria's Gay accommodation circuit especially with other ex-Respect favourite Los Almendros becoming a straight family resort.
