A major Beatles collectable will be offered by a provincial Berkshire Auction house on Tuesday 3rd February 2009 at 11am. (<http://www.cameo-auctioneers.co.uk/Beatles-Scotland/>)

Rare Footage – 8mm Silent Film

Taken from the Beatles 1964 tour of Scotland, the film contains clips of the 'Fab Four' and their entourage whilst staying at The Four Seasons Hotel in St Fillans on the banks of Loch Earn.

A sample of the film can be viewed at <http://www.dev.star-digital.co.uk/cameo/Cameo-Scotland-video.html>

They arrived late on Monday 19th, October 1964, after their show in Edinburgh., staying for two nights, during which they played a show in Dundee on Tuesday 20th.

This film is unique and possible the only surviving recording of their stay at this venue. Total running time is approx 2 minutes 30 sec.

Cameo Auctioneers have confirmed that this piece will be sold with copyright.

A spokesperson at Cameo confirms that this a rare and exciting find and a very collectable piece of Beatles history.
