I joined the Myprotein.co.uk (<http://www.Myprotein.co.uk>) team in late 2007 as one of their official ambassadors and they have been my exclusive supplier of sports nutrition and supplements ever since. Within this period, I have experienced one success after another. My first appearance at the Arnold Classic in February 2008 was a huge moment for me but was quickly eclipsed in October 2008 when I won the UKBFF Finals gaining my IFBB pro-card.

At the same time, Myprotein has gone from strength to strength, becoming one of the leading manufacturers and suppliers of sports nutrition and supplements in Europe, while also winning several business awards of their own in the process.

Besides the gruelling schedules and intense work I have put myself through, I know that Myprotein has given me an extra edge in helping me achieve my success. I can confidently say they are unsurpassable in terms of quality and taste.

But all good things must come to an end, as I have now been handed the chance of a lifetime to make an impact in the United States and start the next chapter in my career. It is therefore with great regret that Myprotein and I have decided to go our separate ways in order pursue new goals.

I have made some good friends at Myprotein and wish them every success for the future.

James Llewelin, Professional Bodybuilder and advocate of Myprotein.co.uk
