Petrolheads from around the globe are counting down to the largest international freestyle motocross tournament in the world - IFMXF Night of the Jumps - which is set to take place in Berlin next month, as part of an international tour.

The biggest names in the sport are set to take part in the show - and will compete with one another in a number of different trials, including freestyle, where tricks are scored against a range of criteria such as innovation and showmanship.

Doors open at 18:00 local time, with the qualification events beginning later in the evening. After the finals are completed and the winners are announced, fans have the opportunity to meet the riders and take home an autograph as a souvenir.
