Eurodata Systems (<http://www.eurodatasystems.com>) proudly announced it has been shortlisted for 'SME Reseller of the Year' in this year's MicroScope Awards for Channel Excellence 2009.

Eurodata Systems, recognised in the industry for offering innovative enterprise-level solutions and services at mid-market prices, has already seen an exceptional start to the year! Scooping the global Managed Services Provider (MSP) award and the best customer dashboard award in just two months, as well as seeing rising profits of up to 21 ½ % - the company is most defiantly doing something right!

"Our success is a testament to our innovative forward-thinking approach as well as excellence in the delivery of our solutions, service and support to end user customers," explained entrepreneur Des Lekerman, co-founder and joint managing director of Eurodata Systems. "We have a proven track-record to deliver real benefits to the customer including; improved efficiency, ROI, and cost reduction – after all – running a mid-market company myself, its exactly what I would expect to see in my own organisation." reassured Lekerman.

Supporting the achievement, Duncan Vinten, Administrator Director at SBJ Global Risks Limited, commented "We are delighted with our relationship with Eurodata and it comes as no surprise for them to achieve this honour. They have significantly improved the stability and availability of our IT systems. Because of Eurodata, we have a better idea of how IT serves our business."
