Easter is just a few short weeks away and is a great time to take a richly-deserved break. Whether you want to spend your holidays (<http://www.thomson.co.uk>) lazing in the sunshine, walk through stunning countryside or lounge on a terrace and drink in a spectacular view along with a cocktail – Thomson has it all.

Costa Del Sol, Spain

For holidays (<http://www.thomson.co.uk>) that offers sun, sand and sangria, why not travel to the Costa Del Sol. It takes less than three hours to travel to Spain's mainland so you can say goodbye to the UK's temperamental spring weather in the morning and be lying on the beach by the afternoon. The Hotel Nerja Club is a great hotel from which to discover Nerja and surrounding villages. Enjoy the British-style pubs and restaurants as well as Spanish tapas restaurants and bars or simply relax in this friendly, traditional style property on the outskirts of the resort. Live music is a regular fixture here and the weekly flamenco show is unforgettable!

Thomson offers seven night holidays in Spain

(<http://www.thomson.co.uk/destinations/europe/spain/holidays-spain.html>) staying at the 3T Hotel Nerja Club

(<http://www.thomson.co.uk/destinations/europe/spain/costa-del-sol/nerja/hotels/hotel-nerja-club.html>) in the Costa Del Sol on a half board basis from £305 per person departing Doncaster-Sheffield Airport, 16th April, 2009 based on three sharing. Price includes return flights, all-inclusive accommodation, resort transfers and fuel supplements.

Madeira, Portugal

A relatively small island, Madeira has much to offer and is the perfect destination to welcome in the spring. From many historical monuments, squares and streets in the capital of Funchal to enchanting gardens, picturesque villages, amazing landscapes, impressive volcanic caves, rugged coast lines, beautiful natural beaches and, last but not least, breathtaking views, there is so much to see. This April also witnesses the annual Flower Festival, taking place on the 25th and 26th of the month, filling the streets of Funchal's centre with floats displaying a myriad of flowers and colours. The area around Canico in particular is well-known for being a walker's paradise as the vast network of levandas lead into the green hills and valleys of the countryside. Two championship courses also offer a haven for golf enthusiasts. Thomson offers seven night holidays in Madeira

(<http://www.thomson.co.uk/destinations/europe/portugal/madeira/holidays-madeira.html>), staying at the 4T Pestana Village Hotel

(<http://www.thomson.co.uk/destinations/europe/portugal/madeira/funchal/hotels/pestana-village-hotel.html>) in Funchal, on a B&B basis from £639 per adult based on two sharing. This price is based on departure from London Luton Airport on 6th April, 2009 and includes accommodation, return flights, transfers and taxes and charges.

Paphos, Cyprus

If you want to experience some culture this Easter, then visit the harbour town of Paphos, on the Western coast of Cyprus. It is so rich in historical interest that the whole town is included on UNESCO's World Heritage List. Adventure can also be experienced here with paragliding, jet skiing, diving and water skiing just some of the activities on offer.

The trademark of holidays in Paphos

(<http://www.thomson.co.uk/destinations/europe/cyprus/paphos-region/holidays-paphos-region.html>) has to be the harbour at Kato Paphos, famous for its resident pelicans. Lined with bars, cafes and tavernas, it's a great spot to while away an hour or two with a beer or a chilled glass of ouzo.

Thomson offers seven night holidays in Paphos

(<http://www.thomson.co.uk/destinations/europe/cyprus/paphos-region/holidays-paphos-region.html>), staying at the Hotel Louis Phaethon Beach Club on an all inclusive basis from £545 per adult based on two sharing. This price is based on departure from London Gatwick Airport on 16th April, 2009 and includes accommodation, return flights, transfers and taxes and charges.

Red Sea Cruise

If you can't decide on a destination for your Easter break, then why not take a look at cruises (<http://www.thomson.co.uk/cruise.html>) which will whisk you away to several different places in one week. Thomson's 'Red Sea Magic' Cruise has an itinerary that includes ancient wonders and sun-drenched shores as you take in the sights of Cairo, Luxor and Jordan – not to forget the Red Sea itself with its world famous reefs.

Thomson Cruises (<http://www.thomson.co.uk/cruise.html>) offers a seven night 'Red Sea Magic' cruise onboard Thomson Spirit from £619 per adult based on two adults sharing. This price is based on departure from London Gatwick, Birmingham or Manchester on 16th April, 2009 and includes accommodation in an inside cabin on a full board basis, and all taxes and charges.
