

Thomson launches summer holidays sale

Submitted by: TUI UK

Monday, 6 April 2009

Leading travel company Thomson has unveiled a summer sale running from 3rd – 30th April 2009, which features a range of great value holidays (<http://www.thomson.co.uk>), free child places and free board upgrades, for holidays departing May – October 2009.

Highlights include a variety of all inclusive holidays (<http://www.thomson.co.uk/all-inclusive-holidays.html>) in long haul, offering customers the opportunity to experience affordable luxury in destinations such as Kenya, Cape Verde Islands and Cuba. For example, a seven night stay at the Starfish Trelawny (<http://www.thomson.co.uk/destinations/caribbean/jamaica/jamaica/falmouth/hotels/starfish-trelawny.html>) in Jamaica costs from just £559 per person, with fourteen nights available from just £779 per person.

Beat the credit crunch and defy the Euro with holidays in Spain (<http://www.thomson.co.uk/destinations/europe/spain/holidays-spain.html>) staying in one of the Costa's, including Costa Blanca, Costa Dorada and Costa Brava from as little as £179 per person for seven nights and enjoy the sunny weather on the beach.

2009 cruises (<http://www.thomson.co.uk/cruise.html>) have not been forgotten, with a range of offers available on 30 itineraries across five ships. Free outside cabin upgrades are available on all Western Mediterranean cruises departing in October, visiting destinations such as Gibraltar, Rome, Lisbon and Barcelona. A seven night 'Mediterranean Explorer' cruise onboard the Island Escape start from just £579 per person and you can even combine two itineraries together for a fourteen night cruise or combine a seven night hotel stay with a seven night cruise.

With all customers financially bonded under the ATOL scheme, redundancy protection available on all our holidays and fantastic online and retail exclusive savings, there never has been a better time to book a Thomson Summer holiday.
