

Millards Cleaning, the Central London Cleaning Company Celebrates 90th Anniversary

Submitted by: Fabric Interface Ltd

Wednesday, 15 April 2009

This year, Millards Cleaning (<http://www.millardscleaning.co.uk>) are celebrating 90 Years of serving Central London.

John Booth, Director at Millards said:

"We are very happy to have reached this milestone in the history of our company, and we hope to be serving London for a further 90 years and beyond."

Servicing the West End, Central London and the City, Millards Cleaning Services Ltd operations centre and offices are based just off Trafalgar Square.

Millards Cleaning Services provide Office Cleaning (<http://www.millardscleaning.co.uk>) and Window Cleaning (<http://www.millardscleaning.co.uk>) in London, Central London, the West End, and the City.

Major Millard founded the company in 1919, to provide employment for ex-servicemen from the First World War. Millard's has always been based in the West End, originally in Bond Street, moving to Neal Street in 1947, to St Martins Lane in 1986 and to their current address 28 Charing Cross Road in 2003. 1994 was the year in which Millard's was awarded the BS EN ISO 9001:2000 quality assurance.

Read more about Millards Office Cleaning Services at <http://www.millardscleaning.co.uk>

Press Enquiries

Mike Staines

Fabric Interface Ltd

0207 841 6700

interface@fabrictechnologies.com