BULLHORN RANKED ONE OF THE FASTEST GROWING PRIVATE COMPANIES FOR 2008

Staffing and Recruiting Software Leader Places in the Top Twenty; Five Bullhorn Customers Also Named

Boston – April 20, 2009 - Bullhorn, the global leader in On Demand, front office staffing and recruiting software, has been named by the Boston Business Journal as the eighteenth fastest growing private company in the Boston area during 2008. For the third year in a row, Bullhorn was honored to make the list, which is comprised of sixty high growth companies. Five Bullhorn customers, including AVID Technical Resources, Hollister, Integra Technology Consulting, TalentBurst Inc., and Winter Wyman, were also among those chosen. The fastest growing companies were honored at the third annual Pacesetter event, held at the Boston Park Plaza Hotel on April 17.

“Bullhorn continues to grow at a very high rate because our staffing and recruiting firm customers recognize the strong value we provide in automating the two parts of their business that drive revenue and increase profitability, recruiting and sales,” said Art Papas, CEO and co-founder of Bullhorn. “Having five Boston area customers also named to the list is a testament to the value that Bullhorn provides, and we congratulate them on their success.”

Bullhorn achieved a 290% growth rate in revenues during the past four year period. In 2008, Bullhorn added 3,400 new users and over 475 new customers. Annual revenues also increased by 42%. The broad appeal for Bullhorn’s On Demand software delivery model was reflected by an 87 percent increase in licensed revenue among emerging market sized customers as well as a 66 percent increase in licensed revenue among enterprise sized customers. Over the past year, Bullhorn was also recognized by achieving high rankings on several national and regional lists of fast-growing companies. Bullhorn’s honors include the Deloitte Technology Fast 500 (#213), the Software500 (#389) by Software Magazine, Inc. 5000 (#707), a Top 100 Workplace (#42) by the Boston Globe, and the Northeast 100 Top Private Companies by AlwaysOn.

“It is a great honor to be once again recognized by the Boston Business Journal as one of the fastest growing private companies in Boston,” said Barry Hinckley, president and co-founder of Bullhorn. “We pride ourselves in aiding our staffing and recruiting customers with technology and service to gain a competitive edge to achieve growth and success.”
