We have a last minute space on a press trip to Bordeaux on the theme of WINE TOURISM, happening 25th-28th May. This opportunity is for a journalist who can guarantee coverage in a newspaper or glossy magazine (circulation 50,000+) or women's interest/travel website (1,000,000+ hits per month).

Some highlights of the trip:

- * Visit to UNESCO World Heritage Site of St Émilion
- * "Planète Bordeaux" (<http://www.planete-bordeaux.net/>)
- * Discover your Wine Sign at La Winery (www.lawinery.com)
- * Blending session & lunch at Château Paloumey with Les Médocaines, four ladies promoting wine tourism and open doors in Bordeaux
- * Ferry boat trip to Blaye
- * Overnight in Villa Premayac (<http://www.villa-premayac.com/>)

The following easyJet flights from London Luton are offered for a three-night trip:-

Outbound – Monday 25 May (flight 2031)

Dep. London Luton 13:35 – Arr. Bordeaux 16:20

Inbound – Thursday 28 May (flight 2032)

Dep. Bordeaux 16:50 – Arr. London Luton 17:35

It may be possible to travel from other UK airports depending upon the commission.

Please contact Natasha Claxton at R&R on natasha@randr.co.uk before 5pm today, Tuesday 19 May.
