Many fathers like to don an apron and cook up a storm in the kitchen. Some prefer to sit back with a glass of something special and let their offspring provide the catering. Either way, Vom FASS can't be beaten for unique Father's Day gifts.

A visit to a Vom FASS is reminiscent of a visit to a vineyard. All its products are served straight from the cask, and passionate, knowledgeable staff will be on hand while you sample the products, and choose the perfect gift. Once your choice is made, and you picked one of their elegant glass bottles, your gift will be personalised with a handwritten message and details of the chosen product and stylishly giftwrapped, completely free of charge.

The Vom FASS range of top quality cold pressed olive, nut and seed oils is selected for incomparable quality and flavour. They are also good for the health - rich in essential Omega 3,6 and 9 fats, and carefully manufactured to maintain essential nutrients.

Balsamic vinegar is another Vom FASS speciality. For the purist, perhaps an aged traditional balsamic, or if he's the adventurous type, a unique Waldburg fruit balsam, created in a small artisan factory on the shores of Lake Constance. Only available from Vom FASS, these special balsams are produced on a small scale to ensure premium quality and exceptional flavour.

Whether it's a rare single malt, a glorious Grappa, a perfectly aged 25yr old Cognac, or an Armagnac XO of incomparable quality. Vom FASS are guaranteed to have something special, and If you really can't make up your mind which he'd prefer, we do a multi tiered bottle which can be filled with a selection of rare and unusual liqueurs and spirits.

No celebration is complete without some fizz, and what better way to let your old man know that he's pure gold in the dad department than with a bottle of Gold Cuvee, a sparkling Pinot Blanc, packed with edible 22 carat gold flakes

Prices start from £3
