SilverDoor has announced new additions to its portfolio of properties in northern England, with several apartments in Liverpool.

The Hall Street serviced apartments in Liverpool

(<http://www.silverdoor.co.uk/serviced-apartments/liverpool>) are in a Grade II listed building located in Central Liverpool, not far from the Albert Docks, the Tate Liverpool and the Maritime Museum. These two bedroom apartments provide comfortable serviced accommodation and consist of one double bedroom, one twin bedroom, a bathroom, a fully integrated kitchen and a lounge with a dining area.

Also new to the SilverDoor portfolio is Keel Wharf Apartments, located in the Docks area of Liverpool. It offers a selection of studios and one bedroom apartments and all are furnished with a full kitchenette, a work area and a comfortable lounge/dining area.

Since winning the accolade of the European Capital of Culture in 2008, Liverpool has seen a lot of regeneration and the Docks area of the city is now a haven of bars, restaurants and cafes.

Marnie Delaney-Parker, Head of PR and Marketing for SilverDoor said: "For the guests who are more used to a hotel, then Keel Wharf Apartments work brilliantly as they have the benefits of a hotel with the space and comfort of a serviced apartment."

SilverDoor has also added further serviced apartments in Cardiff
